

Warren Area Children's Sacred Choir

Trinity is proud to be sponsoring the Warren Area Children's Sacred Choir "Heavenly Singers," an elementary and middle school age choir for children in grades 3 through 8. Children from any area of Warren County, including homeschoolers, are welcome to join. The weekly activity on Thursday afternoons from 4:30 to 6 will feature a variety of sacred music from many genres along with movement activities to inspire children to bring their best to the music. The community activity will culminate in several performances around the county. Kathy Bowley, a Trinity parishioner and public school music teacher, will provide the musical leadership with parents of children asked to provide volunteer support by providing snacks, chaperoning rehearsals, and helping with performances.
